PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Self-taught Junior Front-End Developer with practical experience building and deploying responsive web applications using HTML5, CSS3, Git, GitHub, and GitHub Pages. Passionate about creating clean, user-friendly interfaces while continuously improving through hands-on projects and daily learning. Experienced working with version control, responsive layouts, Flexbox, and modern web development practices. Currently expanding my JavaScript skills and seeking an entry-level Front-End Developer, Junior Web Developer, Website Assistant, or IT Support opportunity where I can contribute, learn, and grow.
